Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Florence B. Sether was born on May 28, 1923, to Bill and Frieda Sether in Huron, South Dakota, where she grew up; and,

Whereas, Birthdays commemorate the first day of our lives, and we celebrate the birthdays of those we love as we recognize the joys and sorrows we have shared, the strength we have gained from the obstacles and hardships we have conquered, and the small daily pleasures life offers; and,

Whereas, Florence married Curtis L. Cameron on January 1, 1943, and gave life and love to three daughters: Candace, Cindy, and Kay; and,

Whereas, Florence served the state of South Dakota, Division of Criminal Investigation, in Pierre, South Dakota, for many years, and also served as the assistant to the Senate Majority Leader; and,

Whereas, Florence has served the communities where she has resided by tirelessly volunteering for numerous organizations; and,

Whereas, Florence now resides in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, and observed her 80th Birthday with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants, as her friends and relatives gathered to honor her and celebrate her life and the camaraderie of the day; and it is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a woman who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 28, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join all her many friends and relatives in wishing her a very happy birthday, good health, and great happiness.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-eighth Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
